ALLOWANCE.

This action is in response to 9/29/2005 request for continuation by the Applicant. The Examiner regrets unfortunate delays in processing of the RCE. The case was not finally docketed to the Examiner until March of 2006.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 5 and 12-15 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest a system and method wherein in a display system with a moving scroll having a sequences of bar codes including a 'start reading' code and a data code, the data code uniquely identifying a particular display area, arranged so that inputs requesting particular displays call up the corresponding display, and having a reference positioning code, a further arrangement wherein the code has bars having a first width and a second width, the first width being larger than the second width, further arranged so that the reference positioning code and the 'start reading' code are of bars of the first width.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
